

126th Annual Convention
The Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan

September 2022:

Dear Convention Delegates,

The 126th Annual Diocesan Convention will take place on Saturday, October 21, 2022, at the First Presbyterian Church (FPC) in Marquette. The evening before we will gather at St. Paul's in Marquette for an opening Eucharist. Prior to the service, we hope you'll stop in the chapel for light refreshments as we re-gather as a diocesan family, after having been apart for almost three years.

Registration will begin at 8:30 am Saturday at FPC with the first business session beginning at 10:00.

We have reserved two sets of hotel room blocks, priced at a negotiated rate. Those planning to book a room needs to do so directly by calling the hotel(s) as below:

1) The Ramada Inn – 906-228-6000 - $85 + tax per night; The deadline to receive the block rate for the Ramada is October 1st

2) The Landmark Inn – 906-228-2580 - $129 + tax per night; The deadline to receive the block rate for the Landmark Inn is September 27th

Please complete the enclosed registration and meal sign-up form for all those attending as delegates or guests. There will be a light breakfast fare on Saturday morning, and lunch will be catered by the Border Grill.

Committees and other groups who would like a display table should contact Jane Cislucis at (800) 236-0087; jane@upepiscopal.org.

Be on the lookout for more information to come on our website: upepiscopal.org, UPChat, email and regular mail.

Kindly complete the enclosed meal registration form and return with a check by no later than October 17.
