Notes from Sierra

-Bob Railey is now out of the hospital and is currently at Eastwood Nursing home in Negaunee. He is staying in Room 304 and his phone number is 906-250-1622. I'm sure he would love the company if you are driving by or want to give him a phone call. The best times to visit or call him are between 10:30am-12:00pm

-There is a new Liturgy Schedule hanging up throughout the church. Volunteers are much appreciated so PLEASE sign up!

-The Button-Up Project is starting the process of collecting items for their big rummage sale that they will be holding here at the church. With that being said, the storage room down in the basement will be used for storage until the sale that will be happening in June. If you would like to donate any items please email stpaulschurch201@gmail.com.

-Beginning in the month of May we will be updating our master contact list for the congregation- we will add a form to the bulletins each Sunday to update all of your contact information, we will also be adding emergency contact information for everyone (this will not be public information- that information will be held in the church office in a binder). Please keep a look out!

HAPPY EARTH DAY!

Earth Day seems to be a great time to talk about Wild Places, about nature, about risk and connection and appreciation. Here is an article from Richard Rohr that will help us:

ALSO two growing opportunities: 1. Who wants to set aside two hours a week to garden with a group of folks? It is a casual commitment, so one would not have to commit to every week. Who is in? What time of day would work: we are thinking of Tuesday or Wednesday? Let me know. 2. Who wants to root plants for college students? Houseplants can be as life-giving as a pet in college. Something to take care of, to nurture, can do more than can be imagined. Who wants to root some plants? Talk to me and we will figure it out.

Finally: let us celebrate the earth in word and song: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xIBkpAm3fhw>
