A Note from Marna,

Next week is Holy Week, a week set aside in the Christian tradition to consider the story that GOT US to the story of the RESURRECTION. Just like any great story and any solid tradition, it takes time to participate and integrate into our being. AND into the community.

I invite you THIS WEEK to look at your calendar and take a few things out of it to create space for the celebration of a HOLY EASTER. Especially Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and then Easter Sunday, I encourage you to make time to walk through the story in community, to let the celebration move and teach you, so set aside HOLY WEEK as a journey....step by step walking toward the amazing reality that death leads to resurrection.
